

UNPAID COURT COMPENSATION FOR ASSAULT

An Officer who is awarded compensation by a Criminal Court following an assault is eligible to make a claim under the Personal Accident and Sickness Policy of the Group Insurance Scheme if they are a subscribing member to the Scheme.

Up to £500 for unpaid compensation awarded by a Criminal Court following an assault to a serving police officer

Claims can be submitted after 6 months if the awarded compensation has not been received.

To make a claim, a copy of the Court Award together with a brief letter of claim should be forwarded to the Federation Office.

Should you have any queries, please contact Sarah Bray or Nicky Williams on Ext 05400 who will be able to assist.
