POLICE FEDERATION
LEGAL EXPENSES GROUP INSURANCE POLICY
Introduction

Thank you for choosing to insure with us.

In consideration of the policyholder having paid or agreeing to pay the premium, the insurer agrees to pay the beneficiary's claim up to the claim limit, subject to the agreement of the policyholder and terms, conditions and exclusions of this policy.

Beneficiaries must notify us of any claims during the period of insurance and within six months of the time of occurrence of the insured event. Failure to do so could lead us to decline the claim.

Assistance Helpline Services

You can contact one of our helplines to obtain legal advice and guidance. We will not accept responsibility if any of the helpline services fail for reasons beyond our control.

Legal Advice Helpline

This helpline operates 24/7, 365 days a year and can provide advice on legal matters. Please note, this helpline service is not empowered to give advice on the admissibility of a claim under this policy. If a beneficiary wishes to make a claim, the helpline can provide them with a form that should be submitted directly to Legal Insurance Management Ltd.

Debt Advice Helpline (if shown on schedule)

This helpline operates between the hours of 09:00 – 17:00, Monday to Friday excluding Bank Holidays.

Identity Theft Helpline

This helpline operates between the hours of 09:00 – 17:00, Monday to Friday excluding Bank Holidays. Please note, this helpline is only in respect of identity theft issues and cannot assist with any other insurance matter.

Please refer to your schedule for the relevant helpline contact number.

Legal Document Service

Create your own legal documents to assist in a range of potential disputes or legal situations that you may encounter.

Policy Conditions

Notifying Us
If anything happens which could lead to a claim under this policy, the beneficiary must let us know as soon as possible by submitting a claim form and providing us with all the information we may need. Until the beneficiary has let us know about the claim and we have provided acceptance in writing, we will not be responsible for any costs, nor will we cover any costs that were incurred before we accepted the claim.

It’s important to remember that the beneficiary must notify claims in writing directly to Legal Insurance Management Ltd. Informing any of our Advice Helplines does not constitute as notification of a claim.

Claims Decision
The decision to accept the beneficiary’s claim will take into account the advice of the authorised representative, as well as our own claims handlers. We may require, at the beneficiary’s expense, an opinion of an expert or counsel on the merits of the beneficiary’s claim. If the claim is subsequently admitted the beneficiary’s costs in obtaining such an opinion and providing such advice will be reimbursed under this insurance.

The beneficiary’s claim will be accepted if all of the following apply:
1. The position has not been prejudiced.
2. We have assessed the beneficiary’s claim and deem it to have prospects of success.
3. It’s likely a sensible settlement will be obtained and is proportionate with the time and costs incurred in dealing with the beneficiary’s claim.
4. The event and action required are covered by this insurance under the Insured Events section. The event must have happened within the territorial limits and during the period of insurance.
5. The beneficiary has kept to the terms and conditions of this policy and none of the exclusions listed under the General Exclusions section apply.

After receiving the beneficiary’s claim or during the course of it we may find:
1. The beneficiary’s prospects of success are insufficient.
2. There is a more suitable course of action.
3. We cannot agree to the claim.

In these circumstances, we may not continue to support the beneficiary’s claim and will tell the beneficiary why in writing.

We may also limit the costs that we pay under the policy for the beneficiary’s claim in the following circumstances:
1. We consider it is unlikely a favourable settlement will be obtained.
2. The likely settlement is disproportionate with the time and expenses necessary to achieve it.
3. There are insufficient prospects of obtaining recovery of any sums claimed.

Alternatively, where it may cost us more to handle a claim than the amount in dispute we may, at our discretion, pay to the beneficiary the amount in dispute which will represent full and final settlement under this policy providing the beneficiary has complied with all terms and conditions.

If the beneficiary makes a claim under this policy which the beneficiary subsequently discontinues due to their own disinclination to proceed, any costs incurred to date will become the beneficiary’s own responsibility and will need to be repaid to us.

Appeal Procedure
If the beneficiary wishes to appeal against the judgement of a court reasons must be submitted to us and our consent obtained. This application must be sent by recorded delivery at least ten working days before the final date for lodging the appeal and We will inform the beneficiary of Our decision.

If we so require the beneficiary must co-operate in an appeal against the judgement of a court.

Representation
If the beneficiary’s claim is accepted, we will take over and conduct the prosecution, pursuit, defence or settlement on the beneficiary’s behalf. We will also select an authorised professional of our choice to act on the beneficiary’s behalf.

If legal action is agreed by us, the beneficiary can continue to use the authorised professional we have selected. However, the beneficiary is also entitled to nominate an authorised professional of their choice, although this must be agreed with us in advance, confirmed in writing and the beneficiary will be responsible for any costs in excess of our standard professional fees. The beneficiary will need to satisfy us that the beneficiary’s chosen representative has the appropriate experience and skills to represent the beneficiary, and the beneficiary shall have a duty to minimise the costs of legal action.

Any dispute arising from or in relation to the authorised professional shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with the policy conditions.

Conduct of Claim
1. It’s important to co-operate with us at all times. The beneficiary must give us and the authorised professional all the information and help required. This will include a truthful account of the beneficiary’s case, any paperwork requested and information on all material developments.

2. We will have direct access to the authorised professional at all times. We shall also be entitled to (at no cost to us) obtain any information, form, report, copy of documents, advice computation, account or correspondence relating to the matter whether or not privileged, and the beneficiary shall give any instructions to the authorised professional which may be required for this purpose.

3. Before or after the insurer pays the beneficiary’s claim under the policy, the beneficiary must, if we ask, take or allow us to take in the beneficiary’s name, all steps needed to enforce the beneficiary’s rights against any other person, including the defence or settlement of any claim or the pursuit of a claim in any person’s name.

4. The beneficiary or the authorised professional must notify us immediately in writing of any offer or payment into court, made with a view to settlement, and the beneficiary must await our written agreement before accepting or declining any such offer.

5. We will not be bound by any promise or undertaking given by the beneficiary to the authorised professional or by either of you to a court, witness, expert, agent or any other person without our agreement.

Due Care
The beneficiary must take due care to prevent incidents that may give rise to a claim and to minimise the amount payable by us.

Recovery of Costs
The beneficiary should take all steps to recover costs charges, fees or expenses. If another person is ordered, or agrees, to pay the beneficiary all or any costs charges, fees, expenses or compensation the beneficiary will do everything possible (subject to our directions) to recover the money and hold it on our behalf. If payment is made by instalments these will be paid to us until we have recovered the total amount that the other person was ordered, or agreed to pay by way of costs, charges or fees.

We may take proceedings at our own expense in your name to recover any sums paid under this insurance.

Fraud
If any beneficiary makes any request for payment under this Policy knowing it to be fraudulent or false in any respect (or in circumstances where it ought to be known to be so) or where there is collusion between the parties to a dispute then entitlement to all benefits under this policy shall be lost. We may also take legal action against the beneficiary and inform the appropriate authorities.

Arbitration
Any dispute between the policyholder and us, which is not solved by either party, will be governed by the laws of England and Wales and will be referred to a single arbitrator. The arbitrator shall be a solicitor a barrister on whom we both agree. If we are unable to agree, one will be nominated by the Law Society. Where appropriate, the dispute will be resolved on the basis of written submissions, and the cost of resolving the dispute will be met in full by the party against whom the decision is made. The arbitrator shall have the power to apportion costs in the case that a decision is not clearly made against either party.
